Opening Prayer

God of life, you are the One to whom we call: for you are the One who hears, and you are the One who acts, bringing us new life with your grace and love and power. Lead us in our time of worship, that we may be prepared to follow your lead in places where life is at risk—places where hope seems far away, places where dreams die during sleep. When we leave these walls, help us live the teachings we proclaim within this place of worship, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Postlude	Are Ye Able, Said the Master?	Lisa Cope

Jesus didn't come to "free our spirits from our bodies." Jesus came to empower our lives with the spirit so that we could be freed from our fleshly desires. That's the only way we will ever truly live. What desires and distractions of the flesh are you battling?
